

ABALONE FOOD

Abalones are deep sea shell fish, caught in the purest ocean water off the California coast by divers and prepared by a special process. They are far more nutritious than oysters or clams and are specially recommended by physicians in debility and wasting diseases.

Abalone food contains pure Albumen in really assimilable form.

DEAR MARIA GIVES OUT MORE LETTERS

Archbishop Ireland Confirms Statement Storer Acted for Roosevelt.

Springfield, Mass., Sept. 22.—The Republican prints a letter from Mrs. Bellamy Storer, written in France September 6, reviewing the controversy between the Storer and Col. Roosevelt concerning the former president's alleged authorization of the former ambassador to Austria-Hungary to visit the pope and ask as a personal favor to the president of the United States to make Archbishop Ireland, of St. Paul, a cardinal.

Letters written by the archbishop in 1903 and in 1904 hitherto unpublished, are quoted by Mrs. Storer to show that at repeated interviews in the white house between the archbishop and the president, Mr. Roosevelt acknowledged that he had commissioned Mr. Storer to act as his personal envoy at the vatican in behalf of the archbishop. Mr. Roosevelt has hitherto publicly denied that Mr. Storer was ever authorized to represent him in this manner and the Ireland letters now published by Mrs. Storer have the effect of making much sharper the issue of veracity between the Storer and the president.

The resignation of Bellamy Storer, ambassador to Austria-Hungary, was transmitted to Washington on March 7, 1906, and was accepted. His resignation was requested by the state department, and it later developed that serious differences had arisen between the president and the ambassador, primarily because the latter had failed to answer a communication from the president. The communication enclosed a letter to Mrs. Storer, calling upon her to give written promises not to interfere in vatican politics.

The first letter by archbishop Ireland quoted by Mrs. Storer, written to Mr. Storer November 3, 1901, is in part as follows:

"I have had two most pleasant meetings with the president at the white house. He is decidedly your friend and resolved to give you the best there is. 'Even,' said he, 'if Berlin comes first and Bellamy wished it for a little while, pending Choate's retention of London, I would give it to him and change him shortly afterward to London. Let him trust me.'"

The next letter, dated October 23, 1892, was written to Mrs. Storer in part as follows:

"I was in Washington last week and, of course, saw the president. I spoke with him of Paris and removed from his mind all suspicion that a Catholic would be there a person non grata as ambassador. He promised me that the next ambassador to Paris would be Mr. Storer and furthermore, expressed the belief that general Porter would soon retire. The president also told me that he had commissioned Mr. Storer to speak for him viva voce at the vatican. He seemed rather proud of having done so."

On Feb. 2, 1904, the archbishop wrote to Mr. Storer:

"Your letters were read and burned. However, you need have no anxiety whatever about the whole affair, which was the chief subject matter of those letters. The president had no occasion to feel ruffled in the least, but you know his impulsiveness. When I saw him, he of his own accord, told me of his writing to you, and asked me how publicity was given to the matter. I said the Scripps-McFlea agency had merely made a guess (as to Mr. Storer's coming to Rome) and that the few unfavorable comments that followed amounted to really nothing. He calmed down completely, remarked that he had real confidence in you, and hoped that the outcome of your mission would be what all desired."

Roosevelt Quoted.
A month later archbishop Ireland wrote another letter in which he quoted the exact words of the president as

MANY BURGLARIES IN BISBEE HOMES

Men Work While Houses Are Occupied; To Enlarge Water Supply.

Bisbee, Ariz., Sept. 22.—From an itemized statement prepared by secretary J. P. Henderson, of the Democratic campaign committee, it appears that the contribution fund in the last election amounted to $277.50 and the expenses to $248.20. The statement has been forwarded to the county clerk for filing.

The city engineer, several councilmen and other officials have inspected the flow of water in Spring canyon with the view of sinking a well and adding the supply of water to the fire protection system.

A house inhabited by Sam Skulevich, a Slavonian, was visited by burglars during the night while Sam was working in the mine. Notwithstanding the fact that the women of the house were at home, the burglars, without showing any fear of being detected, leisurely selected and carried away two heavy trunks full of clothes. No clue has been discovered as yet leading to either the whereabouts of the trunks or the perpetrators of what has been characterized as "the boldest robbery that ever occurred in Bisbee." A big rock was found which the police believe was intended by the burglars to serve as a weapon.

Another residence, the fourth in a week, was burglarized by unknown thieves who secured some wearing apparel and 15 shares of the Cochise Development company. Robert Evans, the proprietor, was asleep while his home was being ransacked.

Ranchers in the Sulphur Spring valley are again complaining against the activity of cattle "rustling." They say that cattle stealing is going on in alarming proportions.

A contract was let by the Y. M. C. A. management for the construction of two bowling alleys. Ray Krebs will occupy the place of assistant secretary, left vacant by Mr. Owens.

A voluntary assignment of the St. Elmo bar was made by its proprietors, French and Ship, who attribute their failure mainly to the damage caused to their stock by the last flood. J. Thomas was appointed assignee.

Bids have been asked for the second time by the territorial board of control for the construction of the highway branch between Douglas and Bisbee. The first group of bids was rejected, the price having been deemed exorbitant.

A meeting of the Bisbee Rifle club members will be held in Dr. Hawley's office Friday evening for the purpose of considering matches with other rifle clubs.

Arrangements have been completed for a dance to be given at the Country club next Saturday night. The feast will mark the opening of the fall and winter season.

Millinery opening tonight.—Calisher's.

IMPERIAL REMEDY CURES ECZEMA
Who is there that has ever had this terrible disease that would not give anything they possessed to be cured? It matters not how long you have suffered, what you have tried, or if every part of your body is an itching, burning sore, a permanent cure awaits you. Thousands have been cured by the use of "Imperial Remedy." Among them are people from every town and village in the South.

The "Imperial Remedy" is applied upon your feet. This preparation has a pleasant odor, contains no grease or salve and requires no bandages. It is a clean liquid which penetrates the pores, loosens the fibrous tissues and purifies the diseased parts. After the disease has all been driven out the skin is left pure, clear, soft and white, and the trouble will never return again. The price of "Imperial Remedy" is $1 per bottle. Your local druggist can get it for you. If he will not, mail us $1 and we will send you a bottle by express, charges prepaid. Imperial Medicine Co., Houston, Texas.

LOGAN DAMSITE DISTRICT ORGANIZED AT TUCUMCARI
New Cement Sidewalks Laid; Automobiles Have Narrow Escape; New Daughtry Building Finished.

Tucumcari, N. M., Sept. 22.—The election at Logan, this county, to decide the question of the final organization of the Logan damsite and irrigation district, resulted in an unanimous vote in favor of the measure. The directors, who were also elected upon this election, were W. E. Weber, C. W. Abernathy and R. L. Smith. E. L. Merrill and C. W. Abernathy will represent the measure at the national irrigation congress at Pueblo. The county commissioners will meet at Tucumcari the coming week to canvass the vote. This irrigation district lies to the north and east of Tucumcari and embraces nearly 75,000 acres of land. Its success will mean wonderful values in Quay county.

J. R. Wasson, president of the local telephone company, has returned from a month's visit to Indiana and Illinois, where he is extensively interested in the mining and patent medicine business. While in Indianapolis he visited relatives.

Cement walks are being put in on South Second street to the Barnes addition. The increased building and improvements along this street is making this one of the most popular resident portions of the town.

One of the new plate glass windows at the Elk drug store was accidentally broken while being put into position. Another glass has been ordered from Denver.

It has been decided by the fair officers to hold the down town displays along Second street, extending from the News office to Mrs. G. A. Lamar's residence. The live stock display will be held at the Farmer's home wagon yard on First street.

V. D. Soule, who spent the summer at this place, is now at East Las Vegas, N. M.

Adam Long, proprietor of the Farmers' Home, left for a business trip to his claim. He will visit his son while gone.

Ice Jones and photographer Steinhog barely missed serious injury by the overturning of their automobile north of Tucumcari, throwing them directly under the car. Both escaped with minor injuries.

Mrs. B. C. Wilson and little daughter have returned to their home at Varnalla, Ga., after a three weeks' visit in Tucumcari at the home of her mother, Mrs. Loony, and two sisters, Mrs. C. T. Adair and Mrs. H. M. Brown.

A new branch sewer is being put in on North Second street to connect with the improvements at the railroad station and neighborhood.

The front is about completed at the Daughtry building on East Main street, and the rooms will be ready for occupancy next week. The building will be arranged into suites for offices. C. B. Hamilton and George Evans will occupy them as before.

The interior of the Evans' opera house is about complete, all the work being finished with the exception of hanging the curtains. A color play of red, white and gold is used in the decorations. The chairs will be installed as soon as they arrive.

Millinery opening tonight.—Calisher's.

IMPROVEMENTS MADE AT TOWN OF VAUGHN

Vaughn, N. M., Sept. 22.—Hardin Clark is building an addition to his residence on South Cedar street.

W. E. Jeffries went to Pecos Wells, N. M., to bring in a band of his sheep.

W. G. Wyatt of Socorro, N. M., has taken a position with the Vaughn Mercantile company.

N. C. Wilcox, proprietor of the Hotel Central here, for 18 months, leaves this week with his family for their home, Wichita, Tex.

Mrs. P. L. Harrington has gone for an extended visit in Topeka, Kas.

Miss Samary-Ezell is now living on her claim near Malaga, N. M.

J. R. Monroe and Wendell Blew will represent Vaughn in the tennis tournament at the Albuquerque fair in October.

Leonard A. Hardie, who has been in Colorado several months on business, came in on a visit to his brother, Spence Hardie.
